Lynne Standley Wins Second Place Award

Student beauticians from El Camino College hold second and third place trophies following the Inter-College Hairstyling contest held at El Camino Saturday.

Miss Lynne Standley, Torrance, placed second in the contest with her entry, "Tres Chic," and Miss Lynn Michaels took third place with entry "Ebony Swirl."

First place trophy went to John Allen Akina of Los Angeles Trade Technical College for the style, "Apricot Ice." The rotating plaque, held for four consecutive years by the host school, went to LA Trade Tech with the trophy.

Miss Sandra Woods of San Diego City College placed fourth with her "Blue Wings" creation.

The 26 entries, four from each school attending, were judged by Mrs. Mary Murray, member of the Hollywood Hair Design Council; Lewis Newberry of Newber-

Manuscripters Get Advice on Writing

Maren Elwood, renowned professional writer, author of three classic books on creative writing, university teacher, writing coach and agent spoke on "The Writer at Work" at the May 19 meeting of Southwest Manuscripters held at 8 p.m., Clark Stadium, 861 Valley Drive, Hermosa Beach.

Miss Elwood, author of the famed "Characters Make Your Story," "Write the Short Short" and "11 Don'ts for Writer," welcomed questions from the audience pertaining to fiction writing following her talk.

STUDENTS KNOWN

She is at present writing several books, teaching creative writing at UCLA Extension Division; conducting the Maren Elwood Agency at 4449 Hollywood Boulevard, Los Angeles; and coaching professional writers. She counts among her students such well-knowns as Joe Brennam, now just completed his eighth book; Barnaby Conrad, author of "Matador"; and Neil Wilson, prominent contributor to the Saturday Evening Post.

Miss Elwood's UCLA Summer Extension courses will begin June 19. Classes are offered in Fiction Fundamentals; Fiction Writing, Plot; and Fiction Writing, Characterization and Dialogue.

Lei Day Tea Slated May 22

Annual Lei Day Tea given by the South Bay Garden Club will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday, May 22 in the Redondo Beach Woman's Clubhouse, Broadway at Pearl.

Lei Day was first celebrated in memory of a former member who brought her love of flowers from her native Hawaii. To this day the South Bayans tea at this time of year features leis, hats and other articles of personal adornment made or decorated with flowers and is called a Lei Day Tea. Members are urged to come in costume.

Hostesses for this tea are

Local Miss Initiated as Phi Beta Kappa

Among the 96 members initiated into UCLA's chapter of Phi Beta Kappa last Wednesday was Patricia McNeese, 22105 S. Denker, Torrance.

Initiation took place in the new Student Union Building, it was announced by Robert S. Kinsman, UCLA professor of English and president of the Eta chapter.

Founded in 1776, Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest Greek letter society in the United States, and election to membership represents the highest recognition of undergraduate scholastic achievement in the fields of liberal arts and sciences. Dr. Kinsman further stated.

All Past Presidents with Mrs. C. P. Mason, the union past president, as chairman.

Clothes Horse Sets Opening

There's a hub bub of ready work in the Plush Horse Arcade preparing for the opening of a new fashion shop with a dual personality. Joyce's Clothes Horse will display a wide range of sportswear and casual clothes for the South Bay woman. And Lilyan's hangers will be filled with the chic and dignified clothes for which she has become known in this area.

Lilyan has moved from her previous location at 1804 South Elena, Redondo Beach to join with Joyce's new Clothes Horse. Together, they will provide a complete fashion coverage in the new Plush Horse shop.

Poyce Oursler has resided in this area for many years and has been active in the Palos Verdes Youth Foundation, Red Cross, Little League, and the women's clubs of Torrance and Palos Verdes. Joyce has been premier hostess at the Plush Horse restaurant since its opening and has had a long experience as fashion coordinator for their bi-weekly fashion shows.

The store is slated to open officially next week and cordially invites everyone to browse through it.

DANCE CLASS OPENS
